Further returns will reduce the Radical majority to about 1050, which will be a Democratic gain of nearly 500 "votes, since last election.

of the result in this District, we can only say, wo are satisfied. Against heavy odds, we have polled a stronger white vote than has ever been known before, in this District: and at Mathere has been exhibited a unanimity of political feeling, a solidity of purpose, which betokens future victory. The Radical majority has dwindled down from 1,810 to the present O'L' foured in three elections, and will continue to decrease, until the scales turn in favor of purity, intelligence and virtue.

best . in How much will the election of Tuesday last, solve for Orangeburg District alone, cost the State Haw a at ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS! Who pays the taxes? we think you know.

Atrocious Murder.

On Saturday last, two inoffensive colored ion, conservative in their politics, came to Orangeburg with a wagon, from the lower part of St. Matthews, sold their cotton, and started on their return home that evening, with the proceeds, partly invested in supplies in their wagon. Arrived near Four Holes Bridge, they camped near the road side, and after building a large fire, went to sleep. In the night one of them, Stephen Ladsden, was awakened by the report of a gun, and a sharp shock, and saw some one making off through the bushes. He went to his companion, Frank Thompson, and found that he had been shot in the head, and was dead. Stephen also was wounded in the arm.

No clue has been discovered to the perpetrators of this barbarous crime. It is supposed that the party, or parties who committed the deed, having killed but one of their intended victims, fled upon seeing the other rise up, (which he did, shouting as he rose) in order to escape detecti n.

An Inquest was held on the body of Frank Thompson by J. H. Felder Esquire, Acting Coroner, and the jury after a session of two days, retured as their verdict : "That Frank Thompson came to his death by a gun-shot wound, received in the left temple by the hands of a person or persons unknown to the

On Mouday last, at the meeting of the Central Democratic Club, the following Preamble and Resolutions where adopted:

Whereas, On Saturday night last, an outrageous murder was committed near Four Holes Bridge in this District, by some person or persons unknown, upon an aged and inoffensive member of the Community; and echereus, not only as Democrats, but also as citizens, we unhesitatingly condemn such acts, be the motive whatever it may: whereas, a jury of Inquest is now engaged in the investigation of the matter, whose verdict has not yet transpired, but we consider this an occasion when it is proper for us to express the sense of the Democrats of Orangeburg District in regard to such crimes.

Resolved, That the Democrats of Orangeburg District fully endorse the Address of the Democratic State Central Executive Committee, in relation to recent acts of lawlessnes and violence in several parts of our State.

Resolved, That the Proclamation of the Executive Department upon the same subject, was unfair in its statements, and did gross injustice to the white people of this State.

Resolved, That the letter subsequently written by Governor Scott, is hailed by us as an evidence of a better disposition on the part of the Executive, and we sincerely trust that it may have the effect of aiding the efforts of all good citizens to preserve peace and order in our various communities.

Samples from the Fields.

We have had on our table for several days three mammoth potatoes, together weighing 15 pounds, grown by Mr. Dempsey Gardner, of Bull Swamp, from draws, on sandy soil. One of the potatoes weighs about 7 pounds. Our friend Mr. Erastas V. Shuler of St Matthews Parish, has sent us eight potatoes, the aggregate weight of which is twenty-eight pounds. We are informed that he has $ of an acre, from which he will gather from 300 to 400 potatoes, averaging 3 pounds each, be sides smaller sizes.

Mr. George Y. Patrick, living a few miles sugar cane measuring 8 feet in length, and counting up 19 joints. We used it as a flag staff at the Democratic Bulletin on the day after the election; and it was quite long enough, and attracted considerable attention.

Mr. Sanders G. Jamison sends us an cer of orn, having 24 rows on the cob, and 1.114 grains. The land was poor, but manured with cotton seed. Mr. Jamison raised 8 Bushels, by measurement, on } of an acre.

Pavilion Hotel.

We are glad to observe that this favorite house is receiving an increased share of public patronage. We can say from our own experience, that in all that pertains to the comfort of the travelling public, it is up to the times, and keeps pace with the commercial activity

Nickerson House, Columbia.

We invite attention to the card in another column, of this first class hotel at the Capital. Any one who has ever been to Columbia knows the reputation of Nickerson's, which is bly sustained by the present proprietor.

Incendiarism in Barnwell.

On the night of the 3d inst., Capt. S. S. lvans, who resides 12 miles east of Eiken, had is barn full of forage, totally censumed.
